Secretary of State
State of California

The undersigned certify that:

They are the president and the secretary, respectively, of The Home of Truth of Alameda, California, a California Religious Corporation. JUN 08 2015

The Articles of Incorporation of this corporation are amended and restated to read as follows:

I. The name of said corporation shall be: The Home of Truth of Alameda, California.

II. This corporation elects to be governed by all the provisions of the Nonprofit Corporation Law of 1980 not otherwise applicable to it under Part 5. This corporation is a Religious Corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the California Nonprofit Religious Corporation Law for religious purposes. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.

The primary purposes of this corporation are:

- a. to undertake, engage in, support, conduct and carry on enterprises for the physical, mental, moral, and spiritual welfare and betterment of ourselves and our fellow men and women. In addition to conducting religious services and providing spiritual guidance and classes, the corporation may make available its facilities or otherwise assist other non-profit groups to provide similar services.
- b. To generally undertake, engage in, support, conduct, and carry on philanthropic and beneficent work and enterprises;
- c. To teach New Thought principles with guidance on how these principles may be transformed into a living spiritual practice;
- d. To venerate the truth that exists in all religions, to honor the diversity of people, ideas and spiritual teachings, and to explore the many ways of connection with The Divine (God).

III. This corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on nonprofit Religious Corporations under the laws of the State of California, including the powers to contract, rent, buy, or sell personal or real property; provided, however, that this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.

IV. This Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

V. The number of Directors shall be a minimum of five (5) and shall not exceed nine (9).

VI. The power of each voting member in good standing shall be one vote in person or by proxy.

VII. No membership fee shall be required for admission as a member of this corporation. A certificate of membership may be issued to each member in such form as the Board of Directors may designate.

VIII. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated primarily for religious (Metaphysical, New Thought or Interfaith) purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. If this corporation holds any assets on trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the Superior Court of the county in which this corporation's principal office is located.

The foregoing Amendment and Restatement of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the Board of Directors.

The foregoing amendment and restatement of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the required vote of the members.

We further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of our own knowledge.
